MAKE YOUR RETURNS!

GUARDIANS, TRUSTEES, RECEIVERS, and all other persons, who, by law, are required to make Returns in my Office, must do so on or before MONDAY THE 23D DAY OF APRIL NEXT.

Much negligence has occurred in this respect during the war, but it cannot longer be safely indulged in. After the 23d of April next, Rules will be issued against defaulters, and COSTS will have to be paid in addition to the regular fees for Returns. Executors and Administrators are required by law to make Returns for deceased Guardians, Trustees, Receivers, &c.

TO TAX-PAYERS.

I HAVE received my instructions to proceed at once to execute the Tax Laws of the State of South Carolina, passed in 1865, by Assessing all Taxable property in Pickens District, for the purpose of raising supplies and defraying the expenses of the State government. Therefore, I notify all persons liable to pay Taxes, that they are required to make their Returns to me, under oath, for the purpose of having the same assessed. No return will be received by mail unless sworn to according to law. The property subject to assessment is—

1st. All lands, lots and buildings in cities and towns; and cotton, excluding the crop of 1865; manufactures of the District for sale; spirituous liquors manufactured or sold, and all brought into the District and sold. Assessment will be made from 1st October 1865 to 1st October 1866.

2d. On all sales of goods, wares and merchandise from 1st of May, 1865, to 1st January, 1866. Sales of cotton, except cotton seized by the United States Government or stored from 1st of May to 1st October 1865.

3d. The capitation tax is levied on all males between twenty-one and sixty years of age, white and black. Employers may return for employees.

4th. On all dogs that were owned 1st January, 1866, or that may be owned up to the time of payment of Taxes.

I, therefore, notify all persons concerned that I will be at the following places, at the time named, for the purpose of making Assessments as above indicated, namely:

Abel Robins,	April 2, 1866;
Jonas Phillips,	" 3, "
Fenton H. Hall's,	" 4, "
Edward Hughes, Esq.,	" 5, "

Walhalla,	" 27th, "
Tunnel Hill,	" 28th, "
Pickens C. H.,	" 30th and 1st & 2d May, 1866;

At which time my Assessment Books will be closed. Persons failing to make Returns will be double taxed. No Taxes will be collected until after the assessment is made and notice given.

SAMUEL G. HERNDON, Assessor and Tax Collector.
